

ENCHANTER

A Complete 400-Point Walkthrough

Infocom, Release 29 / Serial 860820 (stories/enchante.z3). Played to completion on the zAI-Machine interpreter with random seed 42. Final result: 400 of a possible 400, in 329 moves — Member of the Circle of Enchanters.

This walkthrough was written as the game was played, using only the original game manual (A Brief History of Magic) and the official Invisiclues hint booklet for guidance where progress stalled. Every command listed here is exactly what is exercised by `EnchanterWalkthroughTests.Enchanter_PerfectScore`, which replays it end to end and asserts the perfect score.

Before You Begin

- Memorizing. A spell in your book must be MEMORIZED before each casting. GNUSTO is permanent. You can hold about three spells at first, one more each day; over-memorizing makes you forget one.
- Food, water, sleep. Eat and drink when the game warns you. Sleep only in the Bedroom bed (`GET IN BED`); sleeping outdoors is fatal. Sleep erases memorized spells.
- Fatigue shrinks your carrying capacity. Drop anything you no longer need (the dagger, the empty jug, the map and pencil once used).
- Timing matters. The guards, the sacrifice and the adventurer's visits to the mirror run on the game clock. With seed 42 the turn counts below are exact; on a different seed you may need a few extra `WAIT`s at the marked points.
- One-shot scrolls. ZIFMIA, KULCAD, IZYUK and GUNCHO cannot be copied into your book (and FILFRE is optional). Cast them directly from the scroll, once.

Lessons From the Road

- Death is sometimes the door. The central chain — OZMOO, sacrifice, dagger, rope, MELBOR — only opens if you let the guards take you. OZMOO must already be cast: the grey cell blocks magic.
- Darkness reveals. The lighted portrait cannot be seen while you carry a lamp.
- Illusions fool wizards, not adventurers. Save KULCAD for the stair and let the adventurer open the door.
- Guard the one-shot scrolls. ZIFMIA only works on a being you can see; cast it the turn the adventurer appears.
